

Zero Harm Week 2017 Art Competition

Background to Zero Harm at Serco

Here at Serco we care about people and the environment. As part of Zero harm week Serco are committed to achieve zero harm across the business protecting employers, service users, students, children and pets safety.

Serco would like you to draw a poster explaining what zero harm means to you for our Zero Harm week 2017 art competition. This can be a drawing, painting or collage.

Your poster may be about keeping Safe, perhaps when crossing the road or internet safety

Your poster may be about the Environment, perhaps recycling, saving energy / water or not dropping litter

Closing date

Friday 27th October

Send your entries to zero.harm@serco.com with the subject heading 'Zero Harm Art Competition'

Age categories

Early years, KS1, KS2, KS3

Winners

Four winners will be picked from each age category and the pictures will be used in our 2018 Zero Harm calendar.

Each winner will receive a £25 voucher

Name: _____

Age: _____

Parent / carer contact info: _____