

HOW TO PREPARE FOR A LEVEL HEALTH & SOCIAL CARE

If you have chosen to study Health & Social Care next year, please open the legislation and unit-based resource document in the how to prepare section of the website.

We cover lots of different legislation and national initiatives in Health and Social Care, these are all listed in this document. You will notice that there are yellow markings next to each legislation / national initiative, this will tell you which course covers which legislation or initiative, please only carry out research into legislation or initiatives that you will cover on the course you have chosen.

If you have chosen the Level 3 Cambridge Technical Extended Diploma in Health and Social Care you need to follow the triple markings

If you have chosen the Level 3 Cambridge Technical Diploma in Health & Social Care you need to follow the double markings.

If you have chosen the Level 3 Cambridge Technical Extended Certificate in Health & Social Care you need to follow the single markings.

The whole document will need to be saved by you as you will continue to work on it in September. Please look at the legislation and national initiatives applicable to the course you have chosen and use the links provided to find out further information.

You are not expected to carry out research into all the suggested areas, please follow the guidance below.

Level 3 Cambridge Technical Extended Diploma in Health and Social Care (Triple)

If you have chosen this route, we advise that you select a minimum of 6 legislation and 6 national initiatives to investigate. You can type your findings in the box labelled key features.

Level 3 Cambridge Technical Diploma in Health & Social Care (Double)

If you have chosen this route, we advise that you select a minimum of 4 legislation and 4 national initiatives to investigate. You can type your findings in the box labelled key features.

Level 3 Cambridge Technical Extended Certificate in Health & Social Care (Single)

If you have chosen this route, we advise that you select a minimum of 2 legislation and 2 national initiatives to investigate. You can type your findings in the box labelled key features.
