National Robin Day

By Sophie Meacham and Owen Corbett

National Robin Day is an annual nationwide event raising awareness of small birds and other wildlife in winter and how you can help them through this tough time of year. National robin day is a chance to show your love and support for songbirds. There are lots of ways you can help them, without breaking the bank! Provide these three key things; food, water and shelter for the challenges songbirds are facing.

Happy Holidays

FULL HOUSE!

Back at the start of the year, we launched our Book Bingo competition which challenged you to read fifteen books across a range of genres. We are happy to announce our winner, being the first to read all fifteen is....

Jane Austen Day

By Sophie Rushton

'It isn't what we say or think that defines us, but what we do.' - Sense and Sensibility, Jane Austen

On December 16th, 1775, Jane Austen was born. 247 years later, she remains one of the most famed English authors of all time. In her most popular novel, 'Pride and Prejudice,' which was well ahead of its time, she comments on important issues, such as reputation and societal expectations. She is one of the most influential writers ever, even introducing a whole new style of writing! Now, on December 16th, 2022, Jane Austen Day, her books, her influence and her life will be remembered and celebrated.

Treasure Ahoy!

Last month we ran our Treasure Island escape room. Upon discovering Sam Bellamy's lost fortune, students solved riddles and puzzles to unlock a silvery-gold chocolate hoard. We had fun, the students had fun, Gerald, not so much....

Term 1? Completed it Mate

The Learning Hub has had a great first term, we have hosted several events including our pirate treasure hunt and a collab with MFL for national languages week. We are super excited for what is to come next year. We will have new events and competitions ready, so watch this space! We hope you all have a lovely break and see you in 2023!

Happy Holidays and have a Happy New Year!

International Day of Persons with Disabilities

By Oluwatamilore Ajayi

The International Day of Disabled Persons aims to promote the rights and well-being of persons with disabilities in all spheres of society. The annual observance of the International Day of Persons with Disabilities (IDPD) on 3 December was proclaimed in 1992 by the United Nations General Assembly resolution 47/3. Since then society, had dedicated this day, into celebrating the achievements of people with disabilities. But now you are asking” How do you observe International Day of Persons with Disabilities?”. You can:

- Donate to Disability Charities.
- Strengthen Your Discrimination Policies.
- Improve Accessibility e.g., Wheelchair Ramps.
- Assess Your Employees' Diversity.
- Make a Public Statement of Support.

Let's keep on celebrating people and their differences!
