If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or their parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint:

- A formal complaint should be submitted using the Complaints form

How a formal complaint is investigated:

- The Head of Centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the Senior Leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion
- The finding and conclusion will be provided to the complainant with 20 working days

Internal Appeals Procedure:

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted in writing by again completing a Complaints form
- Completed form should be returned to the Examination Officer
